THE SCHOOL THAT TRANSFORMS THE CHALLENGES OF LIFE INTO SUCCESS

14 October 2025

Dear Parents/Guardians

Arrangements: Examinations

Background information

The South African School Act does not provide that any learner may stay home during the exams to study on the days when they are not writing. Only for the NSC Grade 12 Examination, will learners be allowed to stay at home five days before their exam and will be allowed to stay at home to study without being marked absent. Therefore Grade 8 -11 parents must be aware of the fact that if your child wants to study at home and only come to school on the days when they are writing, you must fill in the consent form. Learners that have a consent form from their parents/guardians to allow them to study at home will not be marked absent. All the consent forms must be handed in on Monday 27 October 2025, in the examination room.

Grade 10-11 learners

- Grade 10-11 learners that are writing the first session, have a choice to stay at school for the rest of the day or to go home and study.
- Learners that want to go home after their session will leave the premises at 12:00. If any learner is loitering around the school, waits too long for transport or is in town, this privilege will be taken away and the learner will study at school.
- Learners without consent are welcome to study at school and may leave at 12:00.
- If a learner is writing the second session and arrives here in the first session they will go to the study room.
- Times are as follows: Session 1: 8:00 – 12:00
Session 2: 12:30 – 16:00
(Please make your necessary transport arrangements)

Grade 8-9 learners

- According to the law it is compulsory for Grade 8-9 learners to be at school.
- If their parents/guardians give consent on the consent form they will not be marked absent.
- On days that they write they will be able to leave the premises at 12:00 with consent from the parents.

General Information

- Please inform the school immediately if a learner will be absent for the examination.
- Doctor's notes will only be accepted on the first day when the learner arrives back at school.

Kind Regards

Mrs. E. Gertenbach
Principal
